

THE INTERNATIONAL PPSY SEMINAR

TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE: BETWEEN REDEMPTION AND RETRIBUTION

JUNE 6, 2017, ŁÓDŹ (POLAND)

VENUE: FACULTY OF LAW AND ADMINISTRATION, THE CONFERENCE ROOM OF THE COUNCIL OF THE FACULTY, KOPCIŃSKIEGO STREET 8/12

9.00-9.30 Registration

9.30-9.45 Opening remarks

Prof. Dr. Hab. Agnieszka Liszewska

Dean of the Faculty and Law Administration, University of Łódź, Poland

Prof. Dr. Hab. Joanna Połatyńska

Professor at the Chair of International Law and International Relations, Faculty and Law Administration, University of Łódź, Poland

9.45-11.45 Panel 1: Towards the Conceptualization of Transitional Justice

Moderator: Dr. Tomasz Lachowski (University of Łódź, Poland)

9.45-10.00 Dr. Michał Krotoszyński (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland)
Towards Theory. Transitional Justice and Analytic Philosophy

10.00-10.15 Dr. Andrew Campbell (Indiana Institute of Technology, the United States)
Global Leadership Competence of International Justice Actors within International Courts

- 10.15-10.30 Prof. Dr. Hab. Edyta Pietrzak (Łódź University of Technology, Poland)
Transitional justice in relationship to public sphere and civil society; Theoretical approaches
- 10.30-10.45 Dr. Grazyna Baranowska & Dr. Aleksandra Gliszczyńska-Grabias (Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland)
"Right to truth" as an element of transitional justice: general rules and practical implications
- 10.45-11.15 Discussion
- 11.15-11.30 Coffee break
- 11.30-13.00 Panel 2: Transitional Justice and the Politics of Memory
- Moderator: Dr. Magdalena Reksć (University of Łódź, Poland)
- 11.30-11.45 Prof. Dr. Susanne Buckley-Zistel (Philipps University Marburg, Germany)
Transitional Justice and the Politics of Memory
- 11.45-12.00 Dr. Dagmar Kusá (Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts)
The Born Frees and the Past: remembering, forgetting, and generational change
- 12.00-12.15 Dr. Jakub Gortat (University of Łódź, Poland)
A Shift in Collective Memory: Fritz Bauer's Long Way in Seeking Justice from the Prosecutor Office to Silver and TV Screens
- 12.15-12.30 Mr Mateusz Maciej Mazzini (University College London, UK)
Law and Justice government and memory exclusions. Towards a new framework of analysing memory politics strategies
- 12.30-13.00 Discussion
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch break (Cafeteria at the Faculty of Law and Administration)
- 14.15-15.45 Panel 3: Transitional Justice in the Post-Authoritarian Environment
- Moderator: Dr. Patryk Wawrzyński (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland)
- 14.15-14.30 Dr. Igor Lyubashenko (SWPS University, Poland)
Using Transitional Justice to Address Post-Communist Corruption: cases of Georgia and Ukraine
- 14.30-14.45 Dr. Tomasz Lachowski (University of Łódź, Poland)
Reintegration efforts in the transitional justice paradigm - the case of Donbas
- 14.45-15.00 Mr Vitalii Mazurenko (The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland)
The lustration process in Ukraine in the aftermath of the Revolution of Dignity
- 15.00-15.15 Ms Alexandra Morehead (Harvard University, the United States)
Assembling the Archive of Genocide: Historical Memory of the Wołyn Genocide in Post-War Poland, 1945-2016

15.15-15.45 Discussion

15.45-16.00 Coffee break

16.00-17.15 Panel 4: Transitional Justice Around the Globe

Moderator: Dr. Tomasz Lachowski (University of Łódź, Poland)

16.00-16.15 Ms Raluca Colojoară (West University of Timișoara, Romania)
Hiding behind the “Better later than never!” slogan. How Romania is trying to cope with and fix its lack a transitional justice procedure

16.15-16.30 Ms Elif Durmuş (Leiden University, the Netherlands)
The Kurdish Peace Process in Turkey - Why did it fail?

16.30-16.45 Dr. Agnieszka Szpak, L.L.D. (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland)
Indigenous and Tribal Transitional Justice

16.45-17.00 Dr. Rowland Cole L.L.D (UNDP South Sudan, South Sudan)
Sequencing Transitional Justice Mechanisms in South Sudan?

17.00-17.15 Discussion

17.15-17.30 Poster session

Prof. Dr. Hab. Joanna Marszałek-Kawa (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland) & Dr. Patryk Wawrzyński (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland)
Transitional Justice in the Context of Post-Authoritarian Politics of Memory: Evidence & Predictions

Dr. Magdalena Reksć (University of Lodz, Poland)
Redefining Collective Memory after Political Changes: the Case of Western Balkans

Dr. Patryk Wawrzyński (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland) & Mrs Alicja Stańco-Wawrzyńska (Nicolaus Copernicus University, Poland; War Studies University in Warsaw, Poland)
Transitional Justice in South Africa: 25 Years of Reconciliation

17.30 Conclusions

19.00 Night walk through the City of Łódź – Piotrkowska Street, the main artery of Łódź, one of the longest commercial thoroughfares in Europe

Meeting point: Training and Conference Centre University of Łódź, 16/18 Kopciński Street